Dear A.I.,

Everything is pretty good in "My Maryland" country, except the temperature, which at this moment is 20°. However, I'm keeping us warm enough with only the fireplace stove. This has a side benefit of exercise for me, from stump to ashes.

And as what you refer to as "ho,ho time" gets nearer, I wish you the best ho,ho season, all ho hos.

The clippings are valuable. Thanks for them.

Even the anniversary observance. It has future historical value.

I wish Dallas were going to make the USED into a more meaningful remembrance.

Merely repeating the now conflicting official accounts will mean more criticism for Dallas.

Best wishes,
